

Case 1 : When the operator turned the backhoe, the worker was hit by the bucket and got injured.

When the operator turned the backhoe to the right without noticing the worker, the bucket hit the worker and he crashed into the wall.

Cause

- The worker entered the working range of the backhoe.

Result

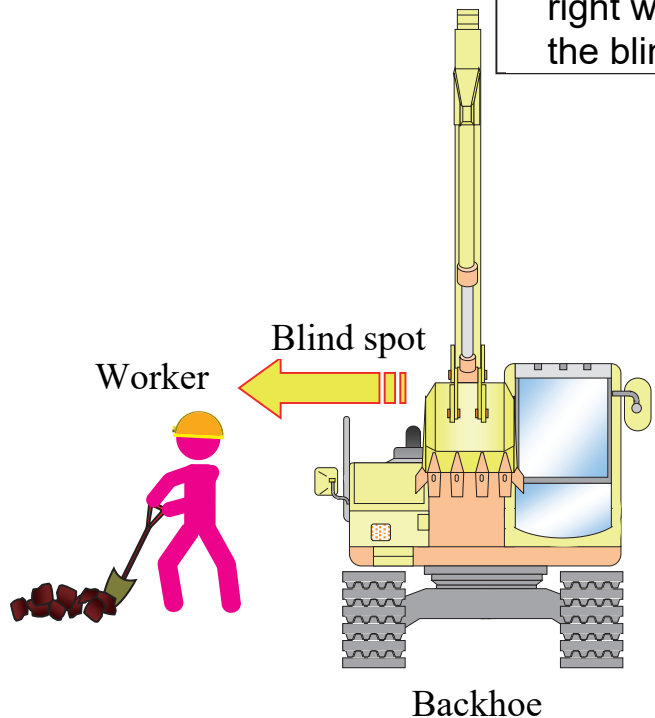

- Occipital bruise
- Intracranial hemorrhage

Lesson

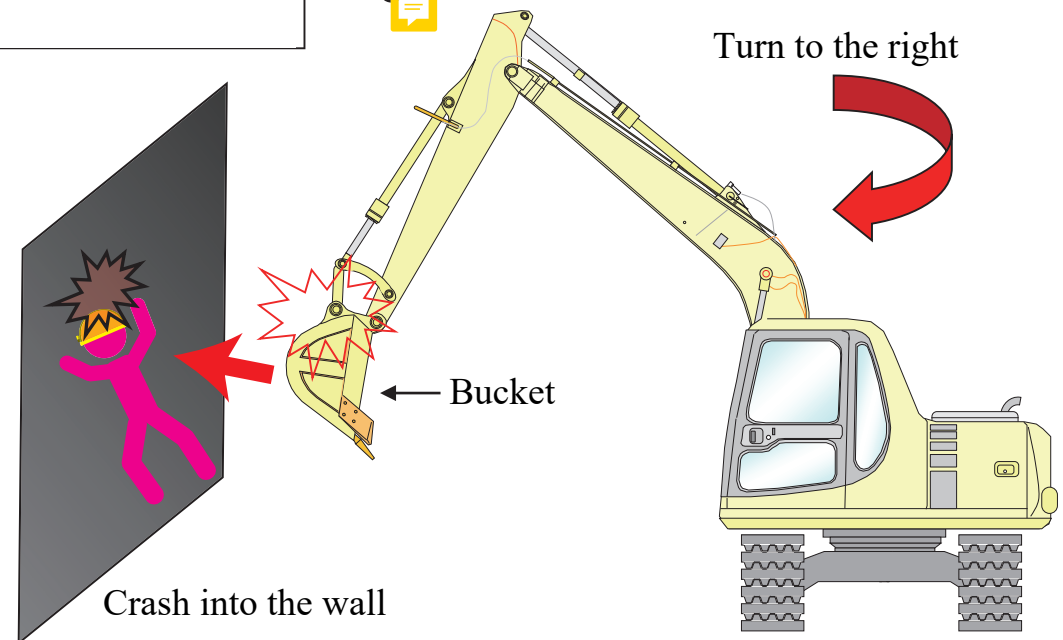

- Take measures to prevent entry into the working range of the backhoe.
- Station a backhoe guide and enter the range only when permitted by the guide.

Action

- The operator turned the backhoe to the right without noticing the worker in the blind spot.

Before

After